A Romantic Story.

New York, Sept. 28.—Just two years ago, Miss Hattie Hashagah, whose decorative paintings have delighted thousands at the art exhibitions, arranged with an Indian named Thunder Cloud to pose as her model for a picture of wild eastern life. Thunder Cloud, who is a big strapping fellow, straight as an arrow, with piercing black eyes, a brighter face than most Indians, and altogether a noble representative of his race, fell in love with the artist, and now they are married. Thunder Cloud was born in the Caughnawaga country in Canada about 40 years ago and a few years later was carried as a papoose to Northern Minnesota. His mother was a full-blood Sioux and his father a half-breed Chippewa. When 20 years of age he was taken to Europe by Buffalo Bill and was the most admired of the red-skins who appeared with the Wild West show before the nobility. Since his return to New York he has earned a good living by posing and selling Indian curiosities. In the city directory Thunder Cloud's name appears as Dominick Plante, but to their friends the couple are known as Mr. and Mrs. Thunder Cloud.

Thirst The Remedy Where to get it.

There are several remedies for thirst. Water is all right, but how much pleasure is a glass of our sparkling soda to the thirsty palate. Ours is an agreeable remedy. We guarantee a cure, not a permanent cure, however—for a dime.

We don't leave anything to chance in preparing our pleasant thirst remedies. We take the utmost pains with every detail. We won't skimp on material either. We use fresh, ripe strawberries for our "crushed strawberry." The same with pineapple. Decayed fruit is never used for our fruit flavors. That's one reason our flavors don't taste like the common sort you get at other places.

Can't Eat

This is the complaint of thousands at this season. They have no appetite; food does not relish and often fails to digest, causing severe suffering. Such people need the toning up of the stomach and digestive organs, which a course of Hood's Sarsaparilla will give them. It also purifies and enriches the blood, cures that distress after eating and

Internal Misery

Only a dyspeptic can know, creates an appetite, overcomes that tired feeling and builds up and sustains the whole physical system. It so promptly and effectively relieves dyspeptic symptoms and cures nervous headaches, that it seems to have almost "a magic touch."

Distress After Eating.

"I have been troubled with indigestion for some time. After eating anything that was sweet I was sure to experience great difficulty and distress. Last fall I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla and am glad to say that my stomach trouble has entirely disappeared. I can now eat a hearty meal of almost any kind of food and have no trouble afterwards. Hood's Sarsaparilla has also cured me of nervous spells." JOHN H. HONIGHAUSEN, Wheatland, Iowa. ## Lewis & Co.

Groceries when properly bought may be sold cheap and yet be a source of profit to the dealer. If you can get fresh goods for the same, or less money than you pay for inferior goods, the profit to you is in buying from the man who sells the fresh goods. Our methods of buying are such that the consumer gets every advantage in price and quality. We buy from the manufacturers agent thus saving the profit of the middle man.

Our agent in San Francisco watches the market and takes advantage of every move favoring us; the advantage is to you as well. What we save in the cost is deducted from the selling price. You, as the buyer, save the difference.

An impression exists in the minds of people who are not our customers that because our store is the best, and our goods the newest and freshest, our prices must be higher than in poorly kept shops. They are lower and an order, just a single order, placed in our hands will convince you of the correctness of this statement. We have fancy groceries but no fancy prices; the condition of trade in Honolulu will not permit it.

No one here excels us in the stock we keep—our prices cannot be equalled.
